IN CAMPUS CONGREGATION POLL

Vote Church, 3-1

Students favor establishment of campus worship by a more than three to one vote according to a recent poll taken in convocation.

Results of the unofficial questionnaire showed that 340 said "yes" to whether Warthurg should provide Sunday worship on campus. Negative voices polled 105 votes while 29 were undecided.

WANT TO WAIT. By an almost two to one edge, students indicated they wished such a program to begin with the present facilities, with 196 saying "yes" and 105 voting "no," and seven undecided. However, by a 143-121 vote, students favored postponing action until better facilities are available.

Students were fairly-well split on the question of whether the proposed worship should be under the auspices of St. Paul's with a full-time pastor; or whether it should be completely independent.

SPLIT ON PLAN. Poll results on the questions were 124 for the St. Paul's plan and 135 for complete independence. Nineteen students favored worship as a branch of St. Paul's with one of her pastors in charge, while 58 wanted worship with St. Paul's with members of the Wartburg faculty in charge.

Students overwhelmingly indicated their readiness to pay at least $15 yearly toward the support of campus worship.

Faculty members were evenly split on the question, with the negative vote having the slight edge.

ELSEWHERE. . . . In other student government news, new senators met for the first time Monday night. Area chairmen for the coming year include Herbie Hafermann, Student Activities; Jim Schwarz, Student Welfare; Julius Roehl, Academic Life; and Phil Moeller, Public Relations.

Senators also named senior senator Stan Vogel as treasurer for next year. In other action they voted to send Student Body President and Vice President John Adix and Charles Maahs to the National Student Body Presidents Conference at Ann Arbor, Mich., Aug. 17-18.

Services Thursday

Ascension Day Services at St. Paul's American Lutheran Church here will be held Thursday morning at 6:30 followed by a breakfast at 7:15 in the Parish House.

Since all students are invited, breakfast will not be served in the college cafeteria.

Commencement Friday Final Senior Chapter

While underclassmen studied and wrote tests, graduates, enjoying the senior prerogative, studied the calendar of events set for the final week.

Highlight of the week will be Friday's commencement at 10 a.m. in Knights Gym as candidates receive diplomas and degrees. Honorary degrees will go to Walter Voecks, regents chairman, and Leslie Moeller, head of the State University of Iowa's School of Journalism.

LENSKI SPEAKS. Speaking at the commencement will be Dr. Gerhard Lenski, Washington, D.C. Dr. Lenski writes "Washington Comments" for the Lutheran Standard. For many years he was pastor of Grace Lutheran Church in Washington. He has also taught at Pacific Lutheran Seminary, Berkley, Cal.

Voecks is currently serving as president of the Lutheran Mutual Insurance Co., here in Waverly. Long associated with the college, he has also served as president of the Iowa District and the National Brotherhoods of the American Lutheran Church.

Moeller was formerly editor of the Waverly newspapers. Since 1946 he has been at SUI and since 1947 has been head of the journalism school.

BALL ROLLING. Events got underway last night with the Honors Day Convocation in Knights Gym. First thing scheduled for tomorrow is a 6:30 a.m. communion service for graduates and parents. The Rev. Walter Tillmanns, German Department, will preach.

At 3:45 p.m., the academic procession will form outside the Little Theater and will march to St. Paul's church for Baccalaureate services at 4. President C. H. Becker will deliver the sermon.

Immediately following the service, groundbreaking ceremonies for the new men's dormitory will be held on North Field. After the brief ceremonies President and Mrs. Becker will be host to the degree candidates at a buffet luncheon in the college cafeteria, at six.

ALUMS COME. Alumni have their day on Thursday, as events begin with registration at 9 a.m. At 10:30 an alumni business meeting will be held at St. Paul's Parish House, followed by a luncheon at 1:30.

Golfers have their swing as the annual alum tournament is held on the Waverly course at 3 p.m. A tea in Centennial Hall Lounge follows at four.

The commencement academic procession forms at 9:45 a.m. Friday with commencement activities scheduled for ten in Knights Gymnasium. Following graduation exercises, an invitational luncheon will be held.

HIDDEN ASSETS IN LITTLE CAR

A $2 wash job for $1 and a 25-cent car fee for 12½ cents—it all adds up to a big saving on a little car.

Ken Starck, Volkswagen owner and member of the college staff, can attest to that. Recently while he was in Janesville, Wis., a station attendant washed the German-model, pint-sized vehicle. Going by the advertising sign in the station window, Starck handed over $2.

The attendant returned $1, explaining, "I just can't do it."

Again last week costs were cut in half when Starck attended a picnic. Park entrance fee was 25 cents. The park manager, apparently plagued by a guilty conscience, returned 12 cents.

In Our Land – Swan Songs

"... and the voice of the swan is heard in our land."

Perhaps the liberties taken with this phrase will be forgiven. When the Old Testament writer set down his prophesy on the "voice of the turtle ... heard in our land" he was thinking of the lyrical song of the turtle dove — God's messenger of peace.

But now we hear only the swan song. More mournful, more solemn, the painfully sweet music of a hundred and more such songs roll softly across the campus and are lost in the crashing grandeur of "Pomp and Circumstance."

Tassel-dazzled and sheepskin-sure, candidates for graduation pause in the dizzying rush of campus life and realize suddenly that in a few days, a few hours, they must take their leave of Wartburg.

Into the life of every man there comes that time, and, as Edmond Rostand says in Cyrano de Bergerec, God help him who passes that moment by, when he must stand gazing into the deep, solemn eyes of fate and know beyond knowledge that — for this time and this place — his words must be his last.

He wonders how to put into words all he feels, all that he has felt. Shiny freshman enthusiasm tarnished into senior cynicism ... dedicated instructors and boreing lectures ... crystal autumn nights when the stars came down to kiss the campus and hours spent at Roy's or Crest-O huddled over a second cup of coffee while Iowa winds howled nightmare songs through barren tree tops ... these things he remembers, and more.

A game with Luther ... a date with "her ... a bull session in the dorm ... a letter from home ... pride in progress and disgust at backwardness.

He tries to speak and can not. These are things that he must keep in his heart — things he will store there until years from now someone says "Wartburg" and they come rushing to his mind.

The last words are spoken, not quite aloud. Swan songs are very soft. It's just as well.

IN OPEN LETTER TO COLLEGE

SBP Airs Views

By Don Altmann

As a result of my experience this past year, I have found the following two statements to be very true. Student Government at Wartburg is continually becoming more and more important. As it becomes more important, it naturally follows that student responsibility increases also.

Altmann

The important thing for the Wartburg student to remember is that student government has only as much authority or power as the administration sees fit to grant it. Another factor is that it exists under the jurisdiction of the Dean of Students. However, as a result of attending various conferences throughout this past year, I can truthfully say that we have one of the strongest Student Governments in the Mid-West.

Student government can be defined in terms of what it does — how many parties, dances, etc., in which it is involved throughout the year. It can also be defined in terms of what it does not do — failures during the year, submitting to faculty opinion, etc. However, although the previous two definitions many times are used, I like to look at student government in a different way.

I do not like to think of it merely as an organization or as a method, but rather as a condition that exists where students govern themselves through rights, privileges and responsibilities.

The functions of Student Government depend primarily upon its goals and objectives. Constitutionally speaking, it should be the channel for expressing student interest, provide a democratic procedure for serving student needs, coordinate student activities and promote the general welfare of the students. I would add that it must strive to improve its communications also.

Briefly, the success or failure of Student Government depends upon three thnigs. 1) The nature of the educational institution is which it functions. 2) The nature of the Student Body. 3) The extent to which the campus lives up to the ideals of democratic government.

This year I have had two major problems. The more important one is that of getting information back to the entire college community. The other is that faculty and students alike sometimes look at the work of each other only to find fault. These two problems must be kept at a minimum, if they are not, the whole college community will suffer.

Student Government has a great future. The important thing to remember is that to get more authority and responsibility, we must first prove ourselves capable of handling the authority and responsibility that we already have.

Student government came first for me this year or I never would have been satisfied. I sincerely thank the Student Body for giving me the opportunity to serve the college community and to serve God. I also want to thank the administration, faculty, Board of Regents, Senate, Execu-fault. These two problems must be kept at a minimum; if president, Ed Schneider.

To those who will follow after me and to Student Government, I wish the best of luck and God's richest blessings!

Farewell,
Don Altmann

WRITER SAYS

Campus Postmen Rude, Impudent

To the editor:

When we return to school next fall, the inevitable demand will arise, "Let's have higher student wages."

Of course tuition has gone up and will probably continue to do so in order to meet rising costs and larger enrollment requirements. But rising tuition alone should not serve as a guidepost for increasing wages.

The students must show in their efforts and their work that they are deserving of such an increase. If students are hired for jobs to help other students, that should be their job. In no case should these students take it upon themselves to be rude, impudent or unwilling to help their fellow students.

So before the cry rings out again next fall, let's prove ourselves worthy of such a demand.

This letter has been prompted by several recent personal incidents and several other references about uncooperating and rude campus postmen.

KNIGHT BEAT
by Bob Loslo

Despite the fact that it doesn't look like it, it is spring when the blood begins to rise in every young college student. Such was the case last Wednesday when nine idiots from Vollmer House ran marathon between Waverly and Waterloo. Three of the fellows ran three miles and the rest of them ran between two and two and a half. The whole furshlugginer trip took two hours and 44 minutes.

High point of the relay came in the middle of main street in Denver when the baton, explorers cap and Vollmer Explorers Club flag changed hands.

The trip which ended in the city park in Waterloo is claimed to be a world record, since nobody else ever tried it.

Duke Ellington was good last Monday night, but apparently he wasn't good enough. The Wartburg Student Body went into the red to the tune of 80 bucks.

It's the last paper of the year when the columnist usually gets mushy with all that bullroar about what a great life it was and how sorry he is to see it close. Well, it's true in my case, too. When you get right down to it, this is a pretty good class that we are going to graduate come May 31st. In my case, it won't seem the same without Oberdorfer, Roevar and Wainscott. The TRUMPET is the third newspaper that Wainscott and I have tried to wreck together.

And it's going to be mighty different around the Little Theater without Ob reminding me what a lousy actor I am.

But to all of you who are coming back — see you next year.

Inter-Term Starts Soon

Wartburg College summer session will begin Wednesday, June 5, and continue through July 17. A schedule of classes and application materials can be secured by writing or contacting Dr. Herbert Max, summer school director.

Registration will begin June 4 in the office of the registrar. Wartburg students who plan to attend summer school are encouraged to register before leaving the campus for this term. In doing this, it will not be necessary for them to return until June 5.

Courses will be offered in biology, business administration, Christionity, education, English, Greek, history, library science, mathematics, music, philosophy, physical education, physics, political science and sociology.

An optional three-week term will be offered, extending from July 18 through August 7.

Wartburg Choir To Be Presented At LWF Confab

Wartburg College Choir will present a concert before the Lutheran World Federation meeting in Minneapolis, August 18 through 25. The group will sing on Tuesday, August 20, in Central Lutheran Church at 1:30 p.m. and again at 5:30.

Featuring most of next fall's concert, the '57 choir expects to be performing before the largest audience in its history. Comprising part of their program will be a German, a Swedish and a Norwegian song.

Arriving in St. Paul Sunday afternoon, August 18, the choir will be housed in St. Thomas College until Tuesday when they will go to Minneapolis.

The Wartburg Choir is one of five Lutheran choirs from the United States chosen to perform at the LWF assembly. The Boys' Choir from St. Thomas School in Leipzig, Germany, will be the only foreign choir present.

Budzine Engaged

The engagement of sophomore Diana Budzine, Independence, to Robert Hildebrandt, Caroline, Wis., has been announced. Bob, now attending Wartburg Seminary, graduated from Wartburg College last year. No immediate plans have been made.

Campus Mourns Death of Mascot

Penny is dead.

The campus mascot for the past nine years was buried yesterday because of death resulting from an auto accident. It proved to be three times and out for the black and white pup as this, her third auto encounter, proved fatal.

Supposedly owned by H. C. Engelbrecht, college business manager, the dog actually had made herself a moving institution on the Wartburg campus. The half cocker spaniel and half unknown was the favorite companion of Ben Busching as he made his continual rounds cutting the campus lawns.

Students Pick 'Big Story'; Denver, Dancing Top List

By Marsha Arhart

Sports once again captured top honors for "Biggest Story of the Year" in a recent TRUMPET poll.

The invitation of the Wartburg basketball team to attend the NCAA tournament was selected by the majority of the polled students as the biggest story, with the dancing issue story a close second.

"Knights Take NCAA Tourney Bid" and "Fans Begin Westward Trek" were the major stories during the weeks of Feb. 23 and March 2 for TRUMPET readers. The first story speculated on Wartburg's opponent in the tourney while the latter issue was filled with news of students planning to go to Denver for the basketball tournament.

PICKS DANCING. One junior coed disagreed with her fellow classmate about the biggest story. "I feel the dancing issue affected so many more persons, both on and off campus, that it would be the story of the year."

Her roommate quipped, perhaps voicing opinions of others, "I think the biggest story should be the one most read, and that would be Bob Loslo's column.

For fifteen seniors the biggest story of the year was undoubtedly "Fifteen Named To Who's Who." These fifteen will find their names listed in the most important and biggest story (longest story at least) of the TRUMPET for them, "121 To Graduate Friday."

CAMPAIGN? "If over-all importance is considered, I will have to cast my vote for the Wartburg - Waverly campaign story," cited a freshman male. "The drive was reperted in several issues and the money solicited will probably create more news about future buildings."

Several others chimed in and cast their votes for the dancing issue which was played up in several issues throughout the year.

YOU THINK YOU'VE GOT TROUBLES

Registrar's Office Busy Avoiding Exam Conflicts

By Joan Pape

Every time tests roll around, some students find they have scheduling conflicts. But suppose one person was in the position of having a hundred or so conflicts. Then what?

There is a person on the Wartburg campus who faces this problem twice a year — Miss Mattie Harms, college registrar.

TEST OF TIME. "Actually, it's a job and a half, done in a job and a quarter time," said Miss Harms, whose office is in charge of scheduling all semester tests.

Conflicts and over crowding inevitably occur for some one, mainly because of sectioning in classes. The office tries to avoid scheduling three or four tests in one day, but since each class is usually made up with a mixture of students, overlapping happens.

CAUGHT SHORT. "It isn't too hard to schedule the tests if we have a sufficient number of periods," Miss Harms explained, "but this year we fall two periods short due to IMemoria Day."

Also because the senior grades have to be in by Monday, the office has had additional problems in test scheduling.

It isn't just test scheduling that keeps her busy in spring. Another duty is to order diplomas and certificates for all of the graduates.

Her office must also see that each diploma is signed, stamped, printed with the right name and arranged in correct order for commencement presentation. Grade ratios must be figured and records compiled to see which seniors will graduate with honors.

DUTIES VARY. "Many people have the idea that the registrar's office has only one duty — registration," she added, "but this is a false impression."

Other duties of her office include supervising admissions, publishing the college catalog, keeping records, recording registration and counseling students on graduation requirements. In addition, Miss Harms is in charge of the placement bureau.

Albrecht Translates Bishop Lilje's Book

John Albrecht, senior from New Hampton and German major, completed the translation of a book written by Bishop Honns Lilje of Hannover, president of the Lutheran World Federation. The bishop wrote the novel during his imprisonment in 1944-45 while under sentence of death.

The story, The King's Priast, retelis in fictitious form an incident in the life of an 18th century missionary to India during the insurrection of Hyder Ali. Albrecht's translation was done in German 450 (Thesis) under the supervision of the Rev. W. G. Tillmanns.

Key Note From Dean

All room and post office keys should be turned in to the dean of students' office before the end of the year, according to Dean Earnest Oppermann.

Knights Down TC - 5 Close Careers

Five seniors, Art Margheim, Bill Bomhoff, Maynard Midtgaard, Don Staude and Hank Waltman, ended their baseball playing days at Wartburg as the Knights downed Iowa State Teachers twice this week, 4-2 and 5-2.

Led by the six hit pitching of Fred Jaspers, timely hitting by Margheim and two fine defensive plays, one in the second and one in the ninth, the Knights beat Iowa Teachers Monday, 4-2.

MARGHEIM DIVES. Fear, however rose among the Wartburg fans as Iowa Teachers made a determined bid to pull out the game in the ninth with three hits and an error. A diving catch of a foul ball by Margheim however killed the threat, ending the game.

On Wednesday, Wartburg ended a successful season, downing Iowa Teachers for the second time in three days, 5-2.

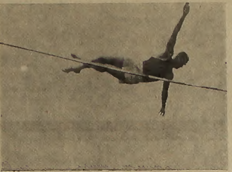
With Jaspers again on the mound, Wartburg won their fifth straight victory to end the season with an 8-5 record

WALTMAN STARTS. Wartburg coach Earnest Oppermann, started senior Hank Waltman on the hill in the ninth inning, putting Jaspers in right field, but three straight singles brought Jaspers back to the mound to quelch the Iowa Teachers rally.

The Knights played errorless ball, clicked on two double-plays and collected nine hits, with Dennis Wessels, 2 for 3, and Ralph Wolken, 3 for 4, leading tha hitters.

Bomhoff, Knight first baseman, led in five individual departments — most runs scored, 9; most hits, 17; most bases on balls, 12; most stolen bases, 5; and in batting average with a .436 per centage.

In the all important pitching department, Jaspers leads the team. His record of six victories and three defeats was helped considerably by virtue of his two wins this past week over Iowa Teachers. LaVerne Leupker and Hank Waltman had identical one and one records.



LOOK! UP in the sky. No, not superman, but LeMoine Jacobs — pole vaulting.

Cindermen Finish Fourth In Loop

Wartburg's cindermen, with 28½ points, finished fourth behind Luther, 64 points; Dubuque, 63 points; and Central, 31 points last Saturday in the Iowa Conference track meet.

Nelson Bose, honorary track captain for the year, won the high hurdles for the third consecutive year — flashing over the hurdles to win in 15.8 seconds. He also took second in the low hurdles.

ANDERSON TIES. Carl Anderson tied for first at 5' 11½" in the high jump with Luther's Hoffman. Poor traction, dua to rain, made jumping extremely difficult.

In reviewing the track season, coach Robert Campbell stated, "We have had a good year and I am pleased with the accomplishments of the squad."

Campbell is looking forward to next year because he felt that this was the middle year of a rebuilding program. However, Campbell says that the pay off will depend on returning trackmen and freshmen next year.

FIVE GONE. Lost by graduation this year are Al Limberg and Harvey Folkarts, weight; Milt Ost, distance; John Polis, javelin; and Leon Bauer, high jump and discus

The dual meet victory over Loras, 82-49 where two college records were set, ranks as the team highlight of the year. The victory was the first dual meet victory for Wartburg in two years and the first with coach Campbell at the helm.

Four school records fell this season, two to Anderson, the outdoor and indoor high jump marks of 6' 2" and 6' 4" respectively, one to Bill Streng, 51.8 second 440 yard run, and the other to the mile relay team of Streng, Bill Riggle, Phil Moeller and Max Jansen with a time of 3:30.5.

Net Fourth In Loop Knight Tennis Team Finishes Ahead, 4-3;

Wartburg racketmen ended the 1857 season with a 4-3 record and placed 4th in the conference meet.

According to coach Miss Adeline Langrock, this year's tennis squad performed much better in comparison to last season's action. Knight netsters suffered a handicap early in the campaign when Captain Bob Cornwell suffered an injury which put him out of action for the rest of the season.

Seven members of the tennis squad received letters for action this year. They are Stan Vogel, Bob Cornwell, Jack Warber, Bill Thalacker, Les Huth, Rudy Feuerschutz and Earl Himmeger.

Following are results of Wartburg tennis matches played this season:

Wartburg 5, ISTC 4;
Wartburg 8, Loras 1;
Wartburg 8, Simpson 1;
Luther 8, Wartburg 1;
ISTC 7, Wartburg 2;
Luther 6, Wartburg 3;
Wartburg 4, Dubuque 3.

Golfers Clubbed By Weather, Foes

Knight golfers finished the current season with a 3-7 record. Coach Norman Johansen considered the Wartburg T-men comparable to last year's team with no concern given to bad weather conditions experienced by the Knights in a number of contests.

Following are season scores of Wartburg's golf contests:

ISTC 8½, Wartburg 6½
University of Dubuque 11½, Wartburg 3½
ISTC 13½, Wartburg 1½
University of Dubuque 13½, Wartburg 1½
Rockford (Ill.) 3, Wartburg 8
Loras 14, Wartburg 4
Wartburg 8, Luther 7
Loras 12½, Wartburg 2½
Luther 8, Wartburg 7
Wartburg 7, Drake 5

Knights scored 50½ points to their opponents' 96½.

Individual totals for the Jomen show Dick Rauscb with 15½ points in 10 matches; Bill Anderson, 11-8; Bob Bracklein, 11-10; Gary Hummel, 6½-10; Duane Ringhand, 5½-5; Dick Chellevold, 1-2; and Vic Baderschneider, 0-4.

You're Living in Yesterday's Future

Another school year is about over — and whether you're completing your freshman year or are about to receive your diploma, you've probably thought, "Time sure flies!"

Yes, days and years have a way of slipping by pretty fast — and today's income with them, if we're not careful. Recently, a Lutheran father who has been out of college now for twenty years told us, "All I've got or all I ever hope to have in the future for me and my family is what I've put into my Lutheran Brotherhood policies. I'm glad I started in college to provide for the future."

Maybe you haven't thought much about it, but actually you're living right now in yesterday's future. Start providing today for that important future you'll soon be living in. Ask your friendly Lutheran Brotherhood agent — a fellow Lutheran — to help you with your plans. Write . . .

Fortress Late – Maybe Monday

The 1957 Fortress is scheduled to arrive late tomorrow night or early Monday morning, and may be picked up Monday and Tuesday. A 12 day delay in the delivery of the book was brought about by the rush season in the publisher's schedule.

The Fortress features many ideas new to the Wartburg book. The cross on the light blue cover introduces the theme "In His Steps." Spot color and duotone pictures brighten the introductory section of the book, while excellent photography and bright copy give life and color to the rest of the book.
